

SALVIA

SALVIA

Salvia, Latin for sage, is a seaside complex, situated in the picturesque Mani Peninsula. This traditional guesthouse offers stunning views, due to its idyllic location and its direct access to the beautiful Ritsa beach, making it the perfect holiday escape!

These vacation homes combine traditional architecture with all modern comforts and amenities. Rare collectibles and vintage furniture create an undoubtedly unique atmosphere, contributing to an unforgettable holiday experience.

All guests have access to the property's pool, which is surrounded by lush gardens and olive trees. The sunny verandas next to the garden offer magnificent views to the Mediterranean Sea and the peaceful, quiet environment is perfect for relaxation.

THE LOCATION

Salvia is located at Kardamyli, in the Peloponnese region, in the Mani peninsula. Kardamyli is a coastal village located in Mani of Messinia 35km south of Kalamata. There are two routes to reach Kardamyli, either by the Prefecture of Laconia following the coastal road that passes from Gythio and Areopolis, or by the Prefecture of Messinia crossing the capital of the Prefecture of Kalamata, and continuing the coastal road. The route from Kalamata is the shortest, about 40 minutes.
