WOO SUITES

The stylish and sophisticated Woo Suites are centrally located in the heart of Athens on the tree-filled Metropolis Square, facing the city's recently restored Cathedral on one side and the Acropolis rock and Plaka district on the other. The guests of Woo Suites choose to stay in one of the Suites because of the spaciousness and comfort they offer, the proximity to most of the sought-after cultural spots, and the vibrant food and bar scene in downtown Athens.

The hotel's staff can assist with all your needs during your stay, from the necessary airport or port transfer to restaurant reservations and last-minute or unexpected requirements. Only recently opened, the Athens Woo Suites strive to capture the essence of a comfortable stay in the heart of Athens with a focus on genuine hospitality and informative service.

The suites' cleverly appointed living areas are bathed in Athenian light through the expansive windows with views of the Acropolis, the Athenian Metropolis, and the square's plane trees. The bedrooms also enjoy sunlight as they are arranged to face the atrium with its unique artwork inspired by the Acropolis rock.

We invite you to enjoy the Athenian sunlight and sublime Greek climate by lounging on the Woo Suites Rooftop lounge area which offers stunning views of the Acropolis and Parthenon as well as the Plaka district and surrounding area.

THE LOCATION

Woo Suites is located at the heart of Athens City centre, at the Metropolis square, just a few steps from shops, cafes, and restaurants. The location is ideal for those who seek to visit the historic and archaeological monuments of the capital, but also for those who want to explore the vibrant life of the city centre.

ACCOMMODATION

The seven spacious Metropolis and Acropolis Suites face either the expansive cathedral square with its tall plane trees and peaceful cafes and restaurants or the Acropolis rock and Plaka district. The suites are characterized by the large windows that allow the sunlight to bathe the living area with its extra-large sofa and cozy reading armchair. The wide window seat is ideal for taking in the sun and gazing down upon the commotion on the square below. Don't forget to enquire about our bespoke minibar welcome basket options to make your arrival and stay in Athens even more special.

Metropolis Suites

The four spacious Metropolis Suites (68 sq.m) face the expansive cathedral square with its tall plane trees and peaceful cafes and restaurants. The suites are characterized by the large windows that allow the sunlight to bathe the living area with its extra-large sofa and cozy reading armchair. The wide window seat is ideal for taking in the sun and gazing down upon the commotion on the square below. The separate bedroom with its king-size bed and ensuite bathroom with shower is also bathed in light seeping through the atrium's windows. Only two of our Metropolis Suites king-size beds can be made up into two single beds. If so needed, please enquire about availability. The Woo Signature Breakfast is served to your suite and enjoyed with an astonishing view of the Metropolis, the city's cathedral.

Acropolis Junior Suites

These two suites (55 sq.m) are located on the second and third floor and both offer views of the Acropolis and are bathed in the Athenian sunlight. The suites offer king-size beds with top mattresses, a choice of pillows, and high-quality linen and can accommodate up to 3 guests. The bedrooms also enjoy sunlight through the atrium's windows and have a view of the artist's concept work based on the Acropolis rock. The living room sofa can be turned into a single bed if needed. The Woo Signature Breakfast is served to your suite and enjoyed with an astonishing view of the Acropolis.

Acropolis Suite

The plush Acropolis Suite (48 sq.m) is located on the fourth floor and offers a view of the northern side of the Acropolis rock and the Parthenon temple. The suite is uniquely designed to provide comfort and relaxation during your stay with a spacious lounge nook for reading but also ample desk space. The extra-large king-size bed offers unique views both day and night. The bathroom is bathed in light from the atrium's window but also ensures privacy. The Woo Signature Breakfast is served to your suite and enjoyed with an astonishing view of the Acropolis.

EXTRA SERVICES

Breakfast – Room Service

The Woo Signature Breakfast is served between 07:30 and 10:30 either to your suite or to the rooftop, which offers a stunning view of the Acropolis and surrounding area. We also offer room service from 07:30 to 19:30 with a selection of beverages, spirits, and wines.

Reception – Concierge

Our Reception is open 24hrs and the concierge services are available from 7 am to 11 pm every day.

Transfers

We cooperate with a reliable and professionally operated transfer company that operates a new fleet of vans and luxury sedans, and will of course meet you at the airport or port.

Late Check-Out Room

Need a late check-out? Please inquire about reserving our complimentary late check-out room in order to freshen up prior to your flight back home. The space offers a comfortable changing room with shower and toilet facilities. Also ideal for early arrivals that have to wait until their room is ready for check-in at 14:00.

Treatments

The spacious guestrooms at Woo Suites are large enough for in-room massage treatments. Please inquire about our list of available treatments and therapists. Pre-booking is recommended.

Housekeeping

The Woo housekeeping team will take care of the cleanliness of your suite on a daily basis and can of course provide additional housekeeping services if so required, and upon request.

Shop-in-Shop

Pick up a last-minute gift from our Greek designers' boutique space at the reception or even a necessary item for your Greek island visit after Athens.
