COLLECTION OF EXPERIENCES

At the southernmost tip of Greece, and that of continental Europe, Mani peninsula, part of the Laconia district of Peloponnese, proudly stands along the centuries. This authentic part of Greece with a long history and proud inhabitants that is loved when discovered, creates faithful visitors and friends who cherish the fact that here, you can reunite with history, with nature and your inner self.

Mani area offers impressive natural settings and hidden treasures to discover. Walking through the narrow cobble streets of the villages, passing old stone towers, towns and villages blending with the environment.

The peninsula belongs to Natura 2000 protected network as well as to Corine biotope program. Its geological wealth that varies from pine forests to rocky soil thin vegetation of low brushwood and olive cultivations, creates an environment rich in biodiversity.

Sites of Interest

Diros Caves: The most beautiful cave of Europe located on the west coast of the Laconian Peninsula, in Diros Bay.

The island of Marathonisi or Kranai: Connected to Gythio town by a narrow pier, this small lush green islet was, according to the Greek Mythology, the place where Paris & Helen found their refuge after escaping from King Menelaos in Sparta. In Kranai one can visit the famous Tzanetaki Tower, which nowadays is hosting the Historical & Ethnological Museum of Mani, St. Peter's church and an imposing light house.

The Ancient Theater of Gythion: Constructed during the Roman empire, excavated in 1891. Located in the north suburbs of Gythion town.

Cape Tenaron: The southern edge of Continental Europe! According to Greek Mythology, Tenaron Cape was the gate to "Ades", the underworld. One can see ruins from the Temple of Posidon and the "Soul Path" that was leading dead to the entrance of "Ades". A hike of approximately 40 minutes will take you to the imposing lighthouse and the edge of the peninsula. (Approximately 1 hour drive from our hotel.)

The Vyzantine Museum of Areopolis, hosted in Pikoulakis Tower: Hosting exhibits from the Vyzante era and the times Christianity was established in the area.

Vatheia village: An old, picturesque town, known for its tower-houses built on a hill dominating the surrounding countryside. Strolling around Vatheia's narrow paths, feels like you are transferred to another era. Abandoned houses, towers and chapels in the surrounding area and scenic views
