Nature & Trails

Vikos Gorge: Known as one of the deepest canyons in the world, Vikos Gorge is a must-visit destination for hikers. The gorge is part of the Vikos-Aoos National Park, and there are various hiking trails that take you through its breathtaking scenery. The most popular route is the Vikos Gorge Trail, which starts in the village of Monodendri and offers stunning views of the gorge and its river. This is a moderately challenging hike that can take around 6-7 hours round trip.

Zagori Trails: The Zagori region is a hiker's paradise with a network of well-marked trails that connect the picturesque stone villages. Some notable trails include the Vikos Gorge to Papigo trail, the Drakolimni Lake trail, and the Tsepelovo to Kipoi trail. These trails vary in difficulty, and you can choose routes that match your hiking skills and preferences.

Pindus National Park: Located in the Pindus mountain range, this national park offers a range of hiking options. The Valia Kalda trail is particularly popular, leading you through a pristine wilderness area with dense forests, alpine meadows, and crystalline streams. It's an opportunity to immerse yourself in unspoiled natural beauty.
