

FIRALIA CAVE SUITES

ARIA HOTELS

FIRALIA CAVE SUITES

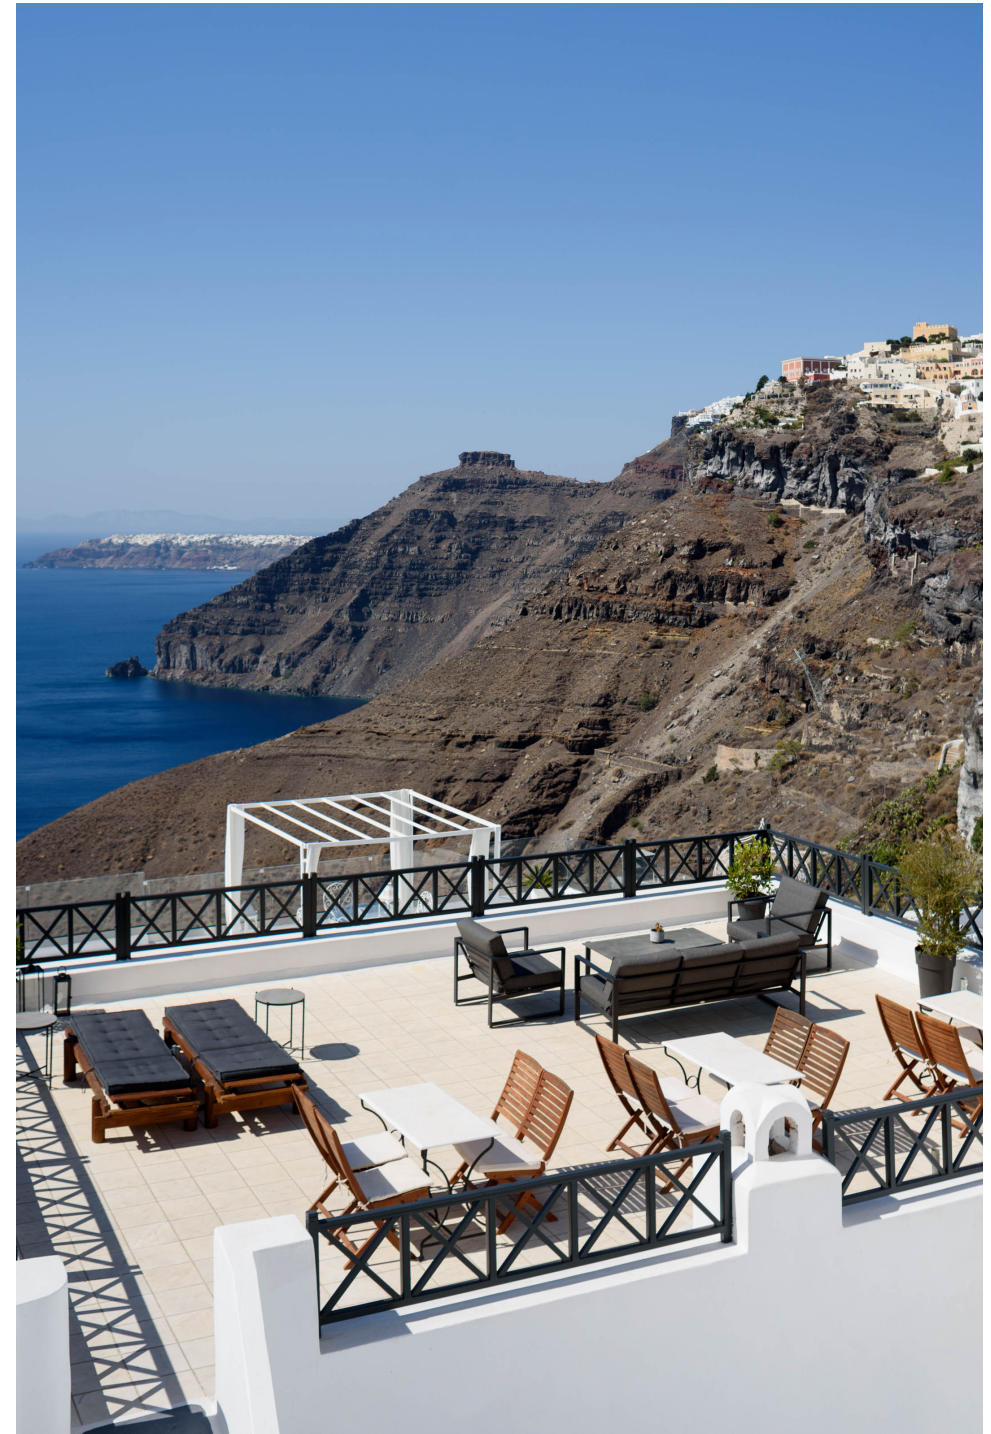

Firalia Suites is a boutique retreat in the heart of Fira, bringing together Santorini's history and a refined approach to modern hospitality. A restored island house from 1890, transformed into six thoughtfully designed suites, preserves the essence of traditional architecture while offering understated luxury. Between the Alitana Inner Courtyard, a peaceful gathering space, and the Fegera Sunset Terrace, where the sky meets the sea in a spectacle of color, guests can experience a rare connection to the island's rhythm. Firalia is more than a place to stay—it's an invitation to embrace time at your own pace, away from the rush, in a setting that feels both familiar and extraordinary.

Santorini is a destination of contrasts—where timeworn traditions meet contemporary comforts, and dramatic volcanic landscapes frame moments of absolute tranquility. Firalia Suites embodies this harmony, offering an intimate escape for travelers who appreciate authenticity without excess. Every detail, from the curved archways and high-domed ceilings to the subtle interplay of light and shadow, reflects the island's rich heritage. Whether sipping local wine on a rooftop terrace or unwinding in a courtyard shaded by vines, guests are invited to slow down, savor the moment, and make memories that feel timeless.

THE LOCATION

Firalia Suites is perfectly situated in the heart of Fira, the bustling capital of Santorini, offering an exceptional base to explore the island's beauty and culture. Positioned on the caldera side, guests can enjoy panoramic views of the iconic volcano and the Aegean Sea, making it an ideal location for those seeking both convenience and tranquility. Fira itself is known for its vibrant atmosphere, where traditional whitewashed houses line the winding streets, leading to stunning vantage points with breathtaking views. The town offers a mix of local shops, fine dining restaurants, cafes, and museums, while also being the ideal starting point to explore the island's iconic spots. Whether you're taking a leisurely stroll through its charming alleys, visiting the nearby Archaeological Museum, or catching the cable car down to the port, Fira gives you access to the best of Santorini's vibrant lifestyle and historical richness. Despite being in the center of the action, Firalia Suites maintains its privacy and peacefulness, offering guests a serene retreat just a few steps from the lively town center. It's the perfect balance of being close to everything yet secluded enough to provide a restful escape.

ACCOMMODATION

Casa Junior Suite

A refined blend of history and contemporary comfort, the Casa Junior Suite pays tribute to the understated elegance of a traditional Santorini home. Earthy hues and deep navy-blue tones create a warm yet sophisticated ambiance, while high ceilings and small windows ensure natural light filters through the space. A dedicated kitchenette and dining area add to the suite's charm, offering a sense of home-like convenience. Located on the first floor, this suite opens to a balcony overlooking the serene Kadouni inner courtyard, while direct access to the Fegera Sunset Terrace guarantees breathtaking caldera, volcano, and Aegean Sea views.

Cave Junior Suite

Stepping into the Cave Junior Suite is like entering a living piece of Santorini's past. Featuring the signature high-domed ceiling of a cave-style dwelling, the suite preserves its original charm while incorporating contemporary comforts. A stone-built sofa enhances the organic flow of the space, while the presence of a traditional stone oven makes this suite truly unique. Guests can unwind in the peaceful Kadouni inner courtyard, soaking in the tranquil surroundings, or ascend to the Fegera Sunset Terrace, where the island's famed sunset paints the sky in rich hues of gold and crimson.

Casa One-Bedroom Suite

A romantic retreat infused with character, the Casa One-Bedroom Suite captures the spirit of Firalia's nostalgic yet modernized aesthetic. The suite's interiors are designed with subtle elegance, where a charming living room with a kitchenette and seating area invites relaxation. Small windows allow soft streaks of the Santorini sunset to seep in, enhancing the space's warm ambiance. The separate bedroom with an en suite bathroom offers privacy and comfort, while the suite's private balcony overlooks the Alitana Inner Courtyard and the picturesque landscape of Fira. A short climb leads to the Alitana Sunset Terrace, a serene space for witnessing Santorini's mesmerizing caldera views.

Cave One-Bedroom Suite

Spacious and full of character, the Cave One-Bedroom Suite is an ode to Santorini's timeless architectural beauty. Designed to accommodate up to four guests, it features either a split-level layout with a charming mezzanine bedroom or a single-level open-plan design that emphasizes the grandeur of traditional cave houses. The suite's seamless connection to the Alitana Inner Courtyard invites guests to embrace the communal spirit of Firalia, sharing moments of discovery and relaxation. With direct access to the Alitana Sunset Terrace, evenings become a celebration of Santorini's unparalleled natural beauty, where the sea, sky, and volcanic silhouette merge in perfect harmony.

FIRALIA CAVE SUITES

Fira Town, Santorini 847 00, Cyclades
T. (+30) 2102207686
E. santorini@ariahotels.gr

ARIA HOTELS

ariahotels.gr